

Tessa Rossi

Tessa Rossi is a Central Pennsylvania artist, instructor, and choreographer with a passion for sharing her love of dance and innovative choreography.

With a teaching style established in the fundamentals of technique, Tessa is an instructor for dancers of all ages and levels. Her classes provide quality dance instruction with a professional, positive learning environment to encourage the growth of well trained, confident dancers.

Known for her award winning, concept-based choreography, her pieces have been recognized with outstanding choreography awards, performance awards, overall high scores, and special recognition for new and interesting concepts.

Tessa began teaching professionally in 2006 at Dance Fusion (Tyrone, PA) where she was the Assistant Artistic-Director and the Competition Team Director. She helped to establish and grow the competitive team to be a dynamic, award-winning program.

In 2009, she joined the teaching staff at Holliday Dance (Duncansville, PA) as well as at their sister-school, One Good Turn Dance Company (Portage, PA) .

She currently teaches: Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Lyrical, Modern and Contemporary.

Tessa started dancing when she was 3 years old at Pauline Baker Rogers School of Dance (Altoona, PA).

In 1991, she joined Andrea's School of Dance (Bellwood, PA) where she was a member their competitive company and had opportunities to attend intensives and master classes. She continued her dance education at Holliday Dance (Duncansville, PA) through 2002.

Tessa continued dancing through college at the Indiana University of Pennsylvania where she earned her bachelor's degree in Communication Media and Public Relations.
